

Dies on Bridge Guiding His Steamer to Port.
BOSTON, March 9.—Collapsing from exhaustion on the bridge after a four days' battle against storms, Capt. Charles W. Fickthorn of the British steamer Clearway died last night as he was bringing his vessel into port with a $1,000,000 cargo from the Orient. The Clearway left Calcutta Dec. 21 and encountered much stormy weather, which culminated in a series of gales off this coast.

Have a Complexion Free from Pimples

A complexion protected by the regular use of Resinol Soap is almost always a complexion to be proud of—free from pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness, and glowing with natural health and beauty. This is because Resinol Soap is an extremely pure toilet soap, without trace of injurious alkali, and containing the soothing, healing Resinol medication. Resinol Soap is delightful to use. Its odor is wholesome and refreshing, and its distinctive rich brown color is due entirely to the Resinol balsams and not to artificial coloring.—Adv.

A Child's Cough Is Dangerous

not only in itself—but because of the more dangerous throat, lung and chest troubles which may result from its neglect. A cough may be regarded as Nature's warning—a warning best answered with a bottle of

Dr. Bull's COUGH SYRUP

Mothers (this warning is meant especially for you) remember that your little ones do not have the strength and resistance to illness of an older person and their colds and coughs should be attended to promptly lest they develop into something far more serious.

Neither can children take the stronger medicines that an older person can, without harm. They should have a quiet, soothing, pleasant tasting medicine such as Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Taken as directed will not harm the most delicate child, but will quickly heal the inflamed membranes, generally after only a few doses.

MUCH DEBATED SHIELDS BILL PASSES SENATE

Provides That Water Power May Be Developed in Navigable Waters by Private Capital.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The Senate last night, after four weeks of debate, passed the Shields bill to provide for development of water power in navigable waters by private capital. The vote was 46 to 22. Conservation champions fought unsuccessfully to amend the measure. Several Senators voted for the bill who had opposed it during the debate. One of them, Senator Walsh, said he considered it had legislation, but firmly believed it "couldn't be amended when it reached the House. Those who voted against the bill were Senators Ashurst, Borah, Chamberlain, Chittenden, Cummins, Gronna, Hollis, Husting, James, Kenyon, La Follette, Lane, Lea, Lee, Lewis, Martin, Newlands, Norris, Flanders, Reed, Sheppard and Works.

The Shields bill had been under almost continuous debate since the passage of the Philippine Bill Feb. 4. It was opposed by the National Conservation Association, of which Gifford Pinchot is President. The bill as passed was changed but little from its original form.

LEAP FROM BURNING TAXI.

Three Passengers Escape Just Before Gasoline Tank Explodes.
 John Cullum, of No. 53 Richmond Avenue, Brooklyn, was taking three men passengers from the Grand Central Station to the Hotel Imperial in his taxi cab this morning when the engine backfired and a fire started as the cab was passing the Waldorf. Cullum and the passengers jumped from the taxi cab only a moment before the gasoline tank exploded and a column of flame shot twenty-five feet into the air.

S. G. CLAY SHOTS HIMSELF.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 8.—Sidney G. Clay, former member of the Kentucky House of Representatives, widely known in New York club life and one of the wealthiest men in the Blue Grass region, is lying at the point of death in a hospital here today after an attempt at suicide at his country home yesterday. He fired a bullet into his abdomen from a heavy revolver. He was despondent because his wife divorced him about a year ago. Shortly after the divorce Clay shot himself, but recovered, and took up social and business activities as usual. Mrs. Clay and her daughter are now in Baltimore.

OBESITY REDUCTION COURSE For Women

By Pauline Furlong

QUESTION AND ANSWER COLUMN

Miss Furlong will reply in this column to letters written by Evening World readers asking questions pertaining to the subjects treated in her articles. Letters must not exceed 250 words in length and must be limited to the subjects upon which information is desired.

A series of obesity reduction exercises charts is being printed in The Evening World Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays of each week.

No. 2—Rebuilding Tissue.

In order to show results, exercises for an all-round reduction of flesh must be strenuous enough, after you have become practiced, to cause physical perspiration. This extra physical exertion tears down the old worn-out tissues, which must be built up with new and healthy material to take its place. For this we must depend entirely on proper and nourishing foods which do not create more fat, otherwise serious complications may arise, and any idea that starvation is necessary in order to bring about a quick reduction is not only absurd but really dangerous. Then, too, all of the eliminative organs—lungs, kidneys, bowels and skin—must be kept active and in prime working order if you would bring the figure to normal proportions and retain health at the same time.

Deep breathing for the lungs, copious water drinking for the kidneys, fruits and green vegetables in the daily menus for the bowels and some kind of a bath for the skin each day of the year will aid materially in bringing about a great reduction in weight and improvement in the general health and appearance at the same time.

Letters From Readers.

GRAYING HAIR.—Mrs. M. L. K. writes: "I have been using the sage tea for many weeks and it does not seem to make my gray hair darker. Please tell me how to use the walnut hair stain."

Get the dried walnut shells in any drug store and steep them with one pint of boiling water. When cold, strain and use as a wash on a perfectly clean head of hair. This is also vegetable and harmless, and you may use it with a brush or dip the hair in it.

LANOLIN.—MABEL Y. writes: "Please tell me the difference between lanolin and lanoline. I cannot get the lanolin you recommend for crows' feet, but can get toilet lanoline. Will this do? It is very sticky; should I dilute it or use plain? Shall I massage it in?"

Yes, you may use the toilet lanoline. Use it plain and smear it on the crows' feet, holding them apart until you have finished spreading it.

to avoid bilious attacks." Eat most of everything, to begin the treatment, and a fast of a few days, with much water drinking, deep breathing and exercises will help cleanse the system of the poisons which are clogging it and causing the attacks. Avoid heavy, greasy foods and have the meals at least seven hours apart, to give the stomach and digestive organs a rest.

FACIAL AND DOUBLE CHIN EXERCISES.—"Is it possible to get the facial and double chin exercises and how much money shall I send for them?"

Send me 6 cents and repeat your question. These were printed on Feb. 8, March 3 and 4.

INSOMNIA.—M. A. H. writes: "For the past ten years I have not slept soundly a whole night through. What causes this and what will overcome it? Please also state the cause of bad taste in the mouth on arising, coated tongue and ill-smelling breath? I am 5 feet 4 1/2 inches tall and weigh 167 pounds. What should I weight? How can I reduce a very high abdomen?"

Insomnia may be caused from many different conditions. Eating too late, nervousness, worry, overwork, etc. No amount of drugging will overcome it permanently. Practice exercises ten minutes before retiring, especially those for the lower part of the body, to draw the blood from the head. Heel and toe raising is about the best one for this. Sleep in a cold room and do not eat two hours before retiring. Coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth and bad breath are all the result of indigestion in the stomach and intestines. The only cure for all these troubles is less food, more exercise and a free action of the bowels at least once a day. This treatment will also reduce the high abdomen. If practised with truth, raising, body bending and breathing exercises each day. Always eat less than you really desire and do not take more than two meals a day—one a very light one.

BILIOUS ATTACKS.—MRS. H. T. R. asks: "Please tell me what to eat."

YELLOW SPOTS.—MADGE L. writes: "I am troubled with large brown spots on my face and hands. They are much larger than freckles and some are so large that they run all together. Please tell me how to get rid of them."

These are undoubtedly liver spots and show a disordered condition of the stomach and are the result of retained waste matter in the system. Eat light foods, drink water, take a daily bath and massage the spots to improve the circulation. Fresh air and outdoor exercises will help to remove the spots. In short a hygienic regime of living for a time will rid the face and hands of the spots. They have no connection with the liver.

Colleton Wrecked His Legs.

Herbert Allen of No. 295 Irving Avenue, Brooklyn, wants $2,000 damages for the wreck of his artificial legs in a collision April 3, 1915, when a Bushwick trolley car in which he was a passenger hit a Myrtle Avenue car. Otherwise he escaped injury. His suit against the Brooklyn Heights Railroad Company was called for trial in the Queens County Court yesterday.
